

Daystar's Joni Lamb Receives Tremendous Award

Daystar co-founder, Joni Lamb, received a tremendous honor for her contribution and support of the people of Israel in their dire time of need.

As Israel National News reported, The Israel Allies Foundation held their annual gala dinner to commemorate efforts of care for the people of Israel. The event was centered on the faith-based support of Israel following the devastating Hamas invasion on Oct. 7, 2023. It was Lamb who received a special honor for Daystar's advocacy and support of Israel.

"I am so grateful to be honored for standing with Israel," Lamb said. "It's never a question for me or Daystar; we will stand with them [Israel] through both the good times and the challenging ones. God bless the land of Israel and its people."

The Dallas event was co-hosted by both Pastor Larry Huch from New Beginnings Church and David Friedman, who is a former U.S. Ambassador to Israel.

President of of the Israel Allies Foundation, Josh Reinstein discussed the importance of Christians standing with Israel and the Jewish people.

“When Christians stand with Israel and the Jewish people, it’s not merely an act of faith; it’s a profound commitment to justice and our shared Judeo-Christian values,” Reinstein stated. “Faith-based diplomacy is responsible for around 80 percent of Israel’s diplomatic successes today.”
