

Delay Gives Pro-Family Californians More Time to Oppose Controversial LGBT Bill

CBN News has learned that the controversial bill AB 2943 did not come up on the Senate floor for a vote before the California Legislature begins its month-long vacation recess.

Randy Thomasson with says critics still have a chance to fight the bill.

AB 2943 states that “advertising, offering to engage in or engaging in sexual orientation change efforts with an individual” is illegal under state’s consumer fraud law.

This means the bill would make it illegal to distribute resources, sell books, offer counseling services or direct someone to a biblically based model for getting help with gender confusion and homosexuality.

If passed, the law could ultimately threaten free speech and freedom of religion for Christians.

*For the rest of this story, visit our content partners at .
Copyright The Christian Broadcasting Network, all rights reserved. {eo}*