

Deliverance Minister: How to Permanently Conquer the Spirit of Fear

Years ago, the Lord gave Kathy DeGraw a prophetic word she says she desperately needed. God told her she needed to root the fear out of her life so that when trials and tribulation came upon her, she would be filled with the faith she needed to ward off the enemy.

And now, as a deliverance minister, DeGraw is teaching the same thing she learned to others experiencing the same emotions. DeGraw and Charisma have teamed to offer a free e-course on How to Conquer Fear, one that will help listeners understand why fear grips them. It exposes fear's root cause and how it holds them in bondage.

"God said to me, 'Kathy, you've got to root the fear out of your life so you can walk in faith when something happens in this world,'" DeGraw told Dr. Steve Greene on a recent episode of Greenelines on the Charisma Podcast Network. "Right now, I'm walking in faith because years ago, the Lord gave me a word of faith. That's all we have to have. It is the core of our walk. It's a core of our being.

"For me personally, I had a lot of fear in my life. And just spending that time with the Holy Spirit. getting those instructions and advice has really helped me to live this moment in faith, knowing that God has my back. He's my rear guard, my side guard; He is everything.

"I really believe what we need to be doing is relying on Him, trusting Him. Faith and trust are intertwined. We need to get in our Word, knowing the protection offered in Psalm 91, continuing to seek our own deliverance, and being in a place of prayer and worship.

In the e-course, DeGraw will assist listeners through the deliverance process by giving them word choices, prayers and declarations to break agreement with fear.
