

‘Democrats Are Doomed’: Bill Maher’s Warning Amid Anti-Israel Furor

Comedian Bill Maher is imploring his liberal peers to take a stand against the anti-Semitism raging among some young Americans, warning the Democratic Party is “doomed” if it doesn’t make a shift.

The “Real Time” host said during a closing monologue on his show Friday that some within the party seem more interested in touting the Palestinian cause than they are in the interests of America, according to Fox News.

“Here is the dilemma for Democrats – their young people, their key constituency – not only don’t like their own civilization; they like the wrong one,” Maher said. “They actually think Hamas is a liberation movement, they chant for the Houthis, they’re chanting ‘We will honor our martyrs’ at Yale. They’re looking for love in all the wrong countries.”

He also offered a warning to liberals if they don’t get these issues in check.

"If the thought leaders in the Democratic Party keep encouraging and not rebuking that America is cringe and the people who run Gaza are great, the Democrats are doomed," Maher proclaimed. "Liberals are weak and woke, especially the white ones, and they indulge all sorts of nonsense from their kids."
