

Develop This Love Relationship if You Want to Thrive in Your Single Season

There are so many Scriptures God has released in the Bible to guide us in making wise choices, but do we listen? I have been in a process of transforming my understanding of His Word lately, and it has been amazing. I would love to share my learned lessons of dating. If you are single and you have been dating, this will be quite interesting to you.

If you have been dating and have found yourself drawing people to you who do not match your kingdom purpose, you will be inspired to surrender it all to God after reading this. It all starts with learning how much the Father loves you. In the book of 1 John, you will receive that impartation from Him. It has very clear instructions on what to look out for. If anyone is trying to pull you away from God, go the opposite direction. Don't be unequally yoked with anyone.

I had an experience twice in one month on two different occasions with two different guys. Guy No. 1 was of another faith. This guy believed Yeshua existed; he just didn't believe He was the Messiah or that He was the Son of God. In our conversation, he revealed that he will never believe Yeshua is a Redeemer, or that He is God in the flesh. This would be called an antichrist. Yes anti-Christ. Which is in opposition to the Father. God revealed this to me in 1 John 2.

Now, the second guy only wanted what he wanted of the flesh. It didn't matter my faith, what I wanted from the Father, as far as becoming more like Him. This guy didn't care at all about my kingdom goals in Yeshua. This would also be considered as antichrist. Anti-Christ, in opposition to Christ. In 1 John 3 says, let no one lead you astray. Listen,

I totally understand the desire for a family. I understand that being, doing and solving life's situations on your own gets lonely. But it doesn't have to be.

The more we learn about the Father's love and that He is love, the more we realize we will never be without anything. No matter what the need may be. The Father has our backs. He has it in full control. We just have to trust Him with absolutely everything.

Believe Him. No matter where we are in life and with everything we have accomplished in life, He does understand our responsibilities. His love is all we need. It is He who extends His love through people, things and situations the way He sees fit. Read the book of 1 John, and may He give you revelation of what true freedom really is. Your instructions await.{eoa}
