

Distinguished Lt. General Calls All Men to Authentic Manhood Right Now

There is a crisis regarding authentic manhood in America in what might be the most critical period in our history.

It's reflected in fatherlessness, cowardice, effeminacy, pornography, divorce and giving a pass to spineless politicians, coaches, celebrities and leftist anarchists masquerading as "peaceful protesters."

The deception, chaos and confusion are not being taken lying down! Lieutenant General Jerry Boykin, a 36-year military veteran, served as undersecretary of defense for intelligence, oversaw Delta Special Forces plus high-profile missions regarding the Iran hostage rescue, Black Hawk Down and the hunt for Pablo Escobar. He is blazing a path for biblical manhood and calling us to follow!

Out of uniform, Jerry allows me to call him friend as we serve together in the kingdom of God. In addition to his role as executive vice president of the Family Research Council, he travels throughout the country to address gatherings of men to equip and challenge us to reject cultural counterfeits and be bold, brave ambassadors for Christ.

With the Promise Keepers virtual global gathering this weekend, along with the enclosed podcasts with Paul Wilbur's exhortation to be men, I want to encourage men and women to invest 10 minutes and listen to Gen. Boykin express his passion for us today.

This encouraging video will help make you a stronger man of God whether single or married. The general shares the five biblical identities for men. Ladies, please watch so you grasp a biblical worldview on this theme as well!

And men, get hold of Gen. Boykin's new book, Man to Man: Rediscovering Masculinity in a Challenging World.
