

Disturbing Buzzfeed Video Shows ‘Gender Non-Conforming’ Parents Trying to Force Child to Be Gender Neutral

Two women want to raise their son to ignore traditional, that is, biblical, values.

A recent Buzzfeed video showcases Dashiell and Michelle raising their son Atticus to believe gender “doesn’t mean a thing.”

The couple was married in 2011, and Michelle gave birth to Atticus in 2013. Though he’s a boy, they don’t want to push him into traditional boy ideals, like sports.

The catch? The child loves sports. And hates tutus.

But the parents continue to press in.

See for yourself.
