

Do You Really Understand What's Being Done to Donald Trump?

The Bible teaches that "God is not the author of confusion" (1 Cor. 14:33); but He certainly is the revealer of it!

One way to confuse people is to speak in a way that's unclear and conveys the idea that an issue is too complex to understand so it's best to just "leave it to the experts."

Progressives usually won't give you straight answers when asked simple questions like, "What is a woman?" Speaking plainly the answer is, "A female with the biological organs of a woman."

When White House spokesperson Karine Jean Pierre was asked, "Does the Biden Administration believe transgender biological men should be allowed to compete in women's sports?" she served a word salad with her eyes repeatedly, nervously blinking, saying: "It's complicated ... OK? ... it's a complicated issue ... complicated with a wide range of views ... no discrimination ... complicated ... not black or white ... very complicated ... not going to get into it."

Gobbledygook like this leaves listeners scratching their heads. "I know you believe you understand what you think I said, but I'm not sure you realize that what you heard is not what I meant."

"And the common people heard Him gladly" (Mark 12:37).

Scores of people today don't understand the gravity of what's happening to former president Donald Trump (it's unprecedented in judicial history), its implications for our country and the urgency requiring fervent intercession.

Traditional conservatives must not tune out because it's "complicated."

We need God's intervention at this defining moment and it's imperative we really grasp what's being done to Donald Trump. It's pure evil.

Trump's 4 Challenges

Accusations against Donald Trump abound. Biased cable and network news totally disregard due process as over 90 criminal felony charges have been piled on him that could result in his being sentenced to prison for the rest of his life.

The overwhelming majority of what's happening to our former president is politically motivated. We are observing firsthand a frightening new chapter in America how the criminal justice system is being used to silence and stop a political candidate.

An activist attorney from just 1 of 160 districts in a state can level felony charge to block a valid presidential candidate from his pursuit of public office. It's unprecedented in United States history.

This is a calculated and coordinated "hit job" engineered by dark spiritual forces intent on overturning traditional America into a totalitarian, big government, socialist system with one-party Progressive rule. Make no mistake about their Marxist ambitions. We are in uncharted waters and we must not be asleep at the wheel while Rome is burning.

What's happening is reprehensible. The Attorney General is allowing these actions against Trump, along with shielding Biden on his scandal of bribery, influence peddling and lying allegations, and it is devastating to our Constitution.

President Trump asked the Ukrainian leader to investigate corruption and was impeached for it; Biden threatened that leader to fire the investigating official or get no aid and it's ignored. Biden and his acolytes lecture us about white privilege, yet his son accumulates millions from adversarial nations for absolutely no experience as he conceals deducting prostitutes in his taxes, is mysteriously put on prestigious boards and foolishly turns over his computer with incriminating evidence to a repairman and forgets about it.

No white privilege possible here.

Trump's 4 Indictments

1. In Manhattan, New York, Democrat uber-leftist district attorney Alvin Bragg came into office Jan. 1, 2022 and, in his first year downgraded 52% of all felony arrests by either throwing them out or reclassifying them as misdemeanors. He then sided with pornographic actress and stripper Stormy Daniels, who alleges sexual involvement with Trump almost 20 years ago after signing a non-disclosure agreement (something 90% of high profile figures do routinely to avoid publicity and damage to family and business) but now brings up sexual misconduct. Bragg has still not defined the felony charge, but the media has a field day bashing former President Trump.

2. In Fulton County, Georgia, Fani Willis, an ardent, leftist Democrat district attorney, who openly expresses contempt for Trump, charged him with 13 felony counts (racketeering, conspiracy, lying, etc.) for allegedly trying to overturn the 2020 election. He is charged with publicly questioning voting results for the state and asking an official if, in the midst of perceived election chicanery, he could "help find 11,000 votes?" She represents one county (no other district attorney from the other 159 districts joined the case).

A documentary video has been released featuring over 15 high-profile leaders in America (Obama, Biden, Hillary and Stacey Abrams) questioning election results. Journalist Jonathan Turley observes the absurdity of this politically motivated case citing every call, speech and letter is charged as a separate criminal act!

3. In Washington D.C., Democrat Jack Smith, a leftist prosecuting attorney, who disgraced himself attempting to destroy Virginia Governor Bill McDonnell (case went to Supreme Court and was unanimously thrown out) charges that Trump with "election interference."

Trump asked Vice President Pence not to certify the election (to wait), but Pence didn't honor the request. Interviewed by NBC News, Pence stated Trump told him this but not that he believed he "lost the election and to do it anyway." Pence also stated publicly that he did not recall anyone in the White House telling him what the corrupt media keeps suggesting occurred.

✖ 4. In Palm Beach, Florida, where President Trump's Mar-a-Lago residence is located, charges have been brought stating that Mr. Trump did not return some classified material after he was told to give them back to the National Archives. Attorney General Merrick Garland then engaged the FBI in an extensive raid at the Trump residence. Charges have been brought against Mr. Trump as observers question why Joe Biden's documents in his garage and numerous other locations were ignored.

Here's the Deal: The corrupt media has a field day lampooning Mr. Trump. More significantly, using government agencies and White House power to silence political opposition is not only unconstitutional but extremely dangerous and will accelerate the judgment of God upon the United States. Is it coincidental that the timing of the four indictments strangely coincides with congressional investigations into the Biden family scandal and the presidential election so the Biden mess can be overlooked by the masses.

We must take pains to understand these issues, communicate truth to those with whom we interact, plus pray fervently during this frightening era in our fragile republic's state.
