Does This Satellite Image Prove God Put His Name in Israel?

If you've spent any time exploring biblical prophecy, you know that Israel is always at the center of the action. But what if I told you that there's actual physical evidence—etched into the very landscape of the Holy Land—that God Himself placed His name there?

That's exactly what evangelist Perry Stone claims in a recent video, where he reveals a fascinating discovery: a satellite image showing Hebrew letters formed naturally by the shadows of Israel's mountain ranges.

The image, which was taken over 20 years ago, appears to display the name of God, hidden in plain sight.

A Stunning Discovery in the Mountains of Israel

Stone recounts how he came across this remarkable image. While at a shop in Israel, he and his guide, Gideon Shore, examined a satellite picture of the nation.

"My guide Gideon, who is Hebrew, he says, 'Perry, this is amazing,'" Stone recalls. When Gideon studied the image closely, he saw that the shadows of the mountains actually formed recognizable Hebrew letters. "When he looked at it, he gave me the letters, he interpreted it, and he was stunned."

The letters, Stone explains, spell out a profound biblical message. They include "Yah" (a shortened form of Yahweh), along with the name “Ephraim.” In Hebrew, Ephraim means “fruitful,” and Stone connects this to Jacob’s dream at Bethel, where he saw a ladder reaching into heaven and declared, “This is the gate of heaven.”
