

Dr. Irvin Baxter Sets Out to Disprove a Vital End-Times Error in the Church

Many Christians believe there will be a seven-year tribulation in the end times. But Dr. Irvin Baxter has a response: Where in the Bible does it say that?

On a visit to The Jim Bakker Show, Dr. Baxter explains why it's so important for Christians to take their theological questions straight to the Bible—rather than just parroting spiritual pundits. Believers need to know what is coming so they can be prepared.

“There's not one Scripture that teaches there's a seven-year tribulation,” Dr. Baxter says. “But there are six specific Scriptures that say it's a three-and-a-half-year tribulation.”
