

Dr. James Dobson: 'Christians, Let Your Voices Be Heard'

Tuesday morning, Dr. James Dobson released a four-minute audio clip encouraging fellow Christians to vote.

"With a spiritual battle raging for the soul of America and a presidential election upon us, Christians must rise to the moment for our great nation," he said. "Let your voices be heard in this election, and may you also be counted among the millions of Christians praying for the future of this great nation! This is our time to be 'salt and light' to a world in desperate need."
