

Dr. Lance Wallnau Is Invoking Isaiah 45 to Go on the Offensive for President Trump

In the video clip above, Dr. Lance Wallnau is urging Christians to unite as an army to pray for President Donald Trump against the forces of spiritual darkness that are attacking him and his presidency, and reminding them that like Cyrus in Isaiah 45, he still believes the president has been anointed by God for a time such as this.

On his website, Wallnau wrote over the weekend:

Isaiah 45

Going on the offensive in prayer for President Trump.

Join the army of prayer warriors with Lance breaking the gates of darkness. There is a generation waiting to hear the message of the Kingdom. Raise up 20 million more small businesses. Church rise up for a great awakening. Dreams of the fear of God to come to Hollywood, Muslims, Wall Street to show them how great our God is! Call out Bill Gates to bring him to the kingdom of God.

Change the body of Christ from being hidden and afraid to step out in boldness. Reverse the curse and release the blessing. Deliverance come! Bless Donald Trump with peace, laughter, and joy in his house. Raise up anointed voices around them. Let the kingdom swallow the kingdom of darkness.

Bless Cyrus! As one! {eo}
