

End-Times Expert Points to Most Important Voting Issue in November Election

For every Christian in America, end-times author Joel Richardson says one issue matters above the rest come November.

No, it's not Israeli alliances or the redefinition of marriage or the Affordable Health Care Act or even persons of the opposite gender using designated restrooms.

"You give me one issue that is more important to a Christian than the wholesale slaughter of 50-million-plus of the single most innocent little lambs this world has to offer," Richardson says on the Jim Bakker Show.
