

Erika Kirk Reads Resurrection Account at 'America Reads the Bible'

Turning Point USA CEO Erika Kirk, who stepped into leadership after the tragic murder of her husband, Charlie Kirk, will join other Christian leaders, including Franklin Graham and Dallas Jenkins, for America Reads the Bible on Friday as the national event nears its conclusion.

The entire event has been live-streamed on Great American Pure Flix and held at the Museum of the Bible in celebration of America's 250th anniversary.

To order Travis Johnson's book, [Un]Embarrassed of Jesus, visit .

As CBN News has reported, the weeklong ceremony features nearly 500 national Christian leaders, lawmakers, and influencers reading the entire Bible aloud. The transition from the Old Testament to the New Testament happens on Friday, April 24.

In a pre-recorded segment airing between 8 and 9 p.m., Kirk reads the account of Jesus Christ's resurrection from Luke 24, including the discovery of the empty tomb and His post-resurrection appearances to many of His followers.

In addition to Kirk, the notable lineup of leaders and cultural voices this evening includes "The Chosen" creator Dallas Jenkins reading from Mark 6, evangelist Franklin Graham reading from Luke 10, businesswoman Kathy Ireland reading from Luke 21, Gov. Sarah Huckabee Sanders reading from John 1, along with many others.

To read the full story, visit our content partners at CBN News.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright © 2026 The Christian Broadcasting Network Inc. All rights reserved.