

Evangelist Is Seeing Awesome Results Here in USA

Evangelist Nick Hall, founder of Pulse ministry, witnessed 2,167 people commit their lives to Christ while sharing the gospel on tour with Christian music artists Chris Tomlin, Kari Jobe and Bethel Music.

Hall took part in the tour from Aug. 13-23, where he saw how God's love and mercy is transforming lives in amazing ways.

"Being a part of this tour and having the opportunity to share the gospel with so many people was nothing short of miraculous," he said.

He recalled meeting a young man who had questions about his faith following the recent death of his grandmother.

"Today, I met Jesse backstage right after I got done preaching," Hall shared on Instagram. "His grandma passed away recently and he shared that it felt he had lost his connection to God that she carried for the family. We discussed faith and he asked some great questions. When he told me he believed he had a 70% chance of going to heaven, I asked if he would like to know how to be 100%. He said yes, and tonight he gave his life to Jesus."
