

Ex-Trans Woman's Bold Testimony Lights Up Internet: 'I Threw It Away to Follow Jesus'

A man formerly living as a transgender woman has given his powerful testimony of how he came to exchange his life of homosexual promiscuity for following Jesus Christ. Jeffrey McCall, who organized the "Freedom March" in D.C. this weekend, spent years living as a woman named Scarlett. Then, God spoke to him, and everything changed.

"I was living as a female," McCall told the crowd at the march, which gathered together ex-gay and transgender people who have chosen to live lives of chastity to honor Christ, as reported by LifeSite News.

McCall further explained that when he was younger, he went to see a psychiatrist and was on the verge of undergoing gender transitioning surgeries.
