

EXCLUSIVE 'Finger of God 2' Clip: Smuggled Into China's Biggest Secret

In this exclusive new clip from the upcoming Finger of God 2, Director Will Hacker gets smuggled into what is perhaps the biggest secret of the Chinese underground church: a seminary. Will and his cameraman had to constantly stay away from windows, be covered while driving and could tell no one what they were doing or even speak English in nearby towns. Will became the first Westerner ever allowed to film in these ultra-secret gatherings of the underground church, and you'll find out about them (albeit still veiled in secrecy to protect everyone involved) in Finger of God 2, coming this fall.
