

EXCLUSIVE: Joni Lamb Tells All

In an exclusive interview with Charisma Media founder and CEO, Stephen Strang, Daystar president and co-founder Joni Lamb discusses her life and the trials she's faced throughout.

Lamb has dealt with recent media storms and controversy, including the closing of the Colleyville Police investigation which was centered around abuse allegations involving a child from the Lamb family.

In Daystar's official statement, it was noted how: "The original police report filed several years ago alleged that an unidentified classmate of the child committed the alleged abuse. In November 2024, media reports surfaced, falsely accusing another Lamb family member—identified as "Pete" in the reporting—of committing the alleged abuse."
