

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Exposing and Eliminating Gender Insanity

The United States Supreme Court is engaged in what will be the most significant and consequential ruling since Roe v. Wade. Will we protect our children from propaganda and permanent, life-altering, dangerous transgender mutilation? My home state of Tennessee unites with about 25 other states in saying, "Enough is enough, and we will not let the woke movement destroy our offspring and the very fabric of our society."

The book of Genesis begins by emphasizing that God "created them male and female" (Gen. 5:2a, MEV). Jesus Christ reiterated this truth in Matthew 12 of the Gospels. The LGBTQ agenda seeks to overturn thousands of years of history and, under the guise of "transgender affirmative care," make children subject to experimental surgeries and puberty-blocking drugs that are life-altering and contribute to cultural confusion and increased suicide rates.

The maniacal Nazi leader Josef Mengele experimented at concentration camps in similar medical malpractice under Adolf Hitler in World War II. Britain, Finland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark and other nations are rising up to stand against this manipulation of minors, and the United States must do likewise before it's too late.
