

Exposing Satan's Schemes to Destroy Your Relationships

Self Talk with Dr. Ray Self is a podcast show that gives real answers to tough issues. Dr. Self has always desired to see people living and working in their created place and purpose, which he calls the promised land.

Regarding his new series, Dr. Self adds, "I am excited about my new podcast series on relationships and boundaries. Nothing can be more satisfying and fulfilling than a good relationship, and nothing can be more painful than a bad relationship."

In the upcoming episodes, the show will explore what it means to be in a healthy relationship and the effects of an unhealthy relationship. What is the difference between a healthy relationship and a toxic relationship? Why do some people have so much trouble setting healthy boundaries? What do you do about boundary trespassers?

Dr. Self will discuss how to make essential changes in the way you relate to other people, and how to protect yourself from abusive or controlling relationships. Most people will stop when you say no, but some people are like a raging bull. You can tell them to stop, but they keep coming right at you.

God designed us for healthy, loving relationships. It is in our DNA, and it's critical for our happiness. It is no wonder that Satan attacks relationships. Through these attacks, he can destroy lives and ultimately inhibit God's purpose for His people. This series will expose Satan's schemes and give the listener the necessary tools for healthy and fulfilling relationships.

Dr. Ray Self has a doctorate in theology and a doctorate in Christian psychology. He is the author of Hear His Voice Be

His Voice and Redeeming Your Past and Finding Your Promised Land, both available at . He is the founder and president of the International College of Ministry, an accredited online college, training people to be effective ministers and Christian counselors. Check out the college website for a free degree evaluation and free lessons at .