

Facing a Big Decision? Here's the Vital Help You Need

"When it comes to listening to the Spirit and His movement in our life ... I think a lot of times we don't realize it, but we have a picture of an image of God that is someone who is maybe trying to withhold something from us or trying to trick us or trying to tease us. Or, He has a secret and won't let us know. I just don't think that's the God of the Bible."

And this false concept of God, says author Emily P. Freeman on a recent edition of "Charisma Connection" on the Charisma Podcast Network, leads us to second-guess the decisions we make.
