

Faith Talk

Let them say continually, let the Lord be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant. And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long. —Psalm 35:27-28

Three important factors are at work in the process of possession:

Have faith. Jesus tells us to “have faith in God” (Mark 11:22).

Believe. “Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith” (v. 23).

Pray. “What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them” (v. 24). When these elements are combined, they are more powerful than any weapon of war. You are no longer looking at what you have, but what you shall have.

Speak faith into your spirit. Remind yourself of the promises of God. Remember, God “calleth those things which be not as though they were” (Romans 4:17).

Your tongue will either announce your next victory or your next defeat. Speak victory. Refuse to open a door for the enemy’s attack with your tongue.

Help me, Lord, to confess Your victory with my tongue.
Make my confessions positive not negative, rooted in faith, not unbelief or doubt. Amen.
