

Family Prays, Worships as Rescuers Revive Lifeless Son

The Floyd family is praising God after a pair of nurses happened to be in the right place at the right time over the weekend, saving their 12-year-old son Levi's life during a family trip to Holden beach.

"It was a miracle no doubt," Lyndsey Floyd, the young boy's mother told Fox 8 News.

It all happened last Saturday, when Levi never came up for air after diving into a wave. When Levi's father saw that he wasn't coming up, he rushed into the water and pulled him out—but Levi was not breathing.
