

Former DOJ Prosecutor: Hillary Clinton Will Pay the Price for the Blood on Her Hands

After watching Sunday night's debate between presidential candidates Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump, Larry Klayman, the founder of Judicial Watch and now Freedom Watch and a former federal prosecutor with the U.S. Department of Justice who was on the trial team that broke up AT&T, had this to say:

"When called on the carpet about her constant lying and obstruction of justice in destroying evidence that would have incriminated her in illegally using a private email server to send classified information that obviously was hacked by hostile nations, and which gave up the whereabouts of Ambassador Christopher Stephens, Hillary Clinton answered with a repeated sick smile, and by calling all of this just lies. However, as usual, it is Hillary Clinton who lied, not just about the illegal use of her private email server, but also my clients Charles Woods and Patricia Smith, whose sons were killed along with the ambassador. Hillary Clinton previously called my clients liars when they exposed her lies that the attack at Benghazi occurred only as a result of a video depicting the degeneracy of the Islamic prophet Mohammed, when in fact she knew it was caused by terrorists not just an angry crowd.

"Hillary Clinton has been sued for wrongful death and defamation. She will finally be held accountable in court for her illegal and despicable actions. Put simply, Hillary Clinton has blood on her hands and she will now pay a legal price for it."
