

Franklin Graham: 'Bible' TV Series 'Compelling'

The Bible series, airing on the History Channel is a compelling 10-hour feature that will likely cause a viewer to want to open the pages of Scripture to see the realities of Almighty God's plan for the human race.

While there are some story lines interpreted differently, the truth is that in all things the Lord Jesus Christ is seen lifted up before the world and glorified as the King of kings.

As Easter approaches, it is good to once again turn to the Truth of Scripture to behold what the Savior of the world has done for the sinful human race by the gift of salvation through His grace.

For it is through repentance of sin that men, women and children can receive God's forgiveness through His sacrifice on the cross for the redemption of our sin, and for the hope of Heaven eternal because of His redeeming love.

"The Bible" series continues on Sunday nights, March 17, 24 and March 31 at 8/7 Central on The History Channel. To watch an extended trailer, click here.

For the original article, visit this link.