

Franklin Graham, Ronnie Floyd, Kari Jobe Issue Urgent Call to Prayer

As the country grapples with yet another act of terrorism, many people ask again: "How could this happen?"

Eight people were killed last night when Sayfullo Habibullaevic Saipov plowed into a bike path with a rented Home Depot truck. New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo says the suspect was radicalized domestically.

As more information trickles in, many in the Christian community are lifting their hearts in prayer. Here's what they're saying:
