 By RiZen | Verity Records

Stellar Award-winning artists and siblings Adriann and Aundrea Lewis of the group RiZen demonstrate their staying power in gospel music with the release of their third album, Free. The sisters offer a litany of upbeat cuts and worshipful ballads that speak of God's faithfulness and unconditional love.

Listeners will immediately be drawn into a praise party with the upbeat sounds of "He'll Make a Way," "Ridiculous," "Dance" and the title cut. RiZen also weave in several worshipful ballads such as "Live to Love" and "Just for Me." The lyrics of the inspiring "I Owe It All to You" feel magnetic, compelling listeners to confess their need for Christ and worship Him: "I owe it all to You / My praise / My praise and worship belongs to You / For who You are / The things You do / For what You've done so far / I owe it all to You."

From the sound of it, Free seeks to "invigorate the gospel music scene" and challenge a generation of believers to walk in the freedom purchased by Jesus Christ.
