

Gateway Pastor: We've Experienced a Breakthrough With Pastor Robert Morris

After many people contended in prayer for the last 24 to 48 hours, a Gateway Church pastor says founder Robert Morris has experienced a breakthrough in the spirit realm.

"I know we've had prayer going on all night, and it's made a world of difference as we've battled in the spirit realm," lead executive senior pastor Todd Lane says in a video posted to Facebook.

"He's still battling a little bit of pain, but by all accounts, with what we saw done last night, I really believe there was a breakthrough in the spirit realm," Lane says.

Morris was airlifted over the weekend due to internal bleeding from a surgery last week.

Gateway Church launched an international prayer vigil through social media where thousands responded through reactions and comments.

Watch the video to see the full update.