

Gina Carano Credits God's 'Love and Grace' After Reaching Major Settlement With Disney Over 'Mandalorian' Firing

The force must be with Gina Carano.

Lucasfilm and The Walt Disney Company settled with the former "Mandalorian" star, who sued the two studios last year after she was fired in 2021 because she "dared voice her own opinions" – conservative views – on social media.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

"I hope this brings some healing to the force," Carano wrote in a statement posted to X, going on to thank entrepreneur Elon Musk for funding her wrongful termination lawsuit against the entertainment giant.

To order Jonathan Cahn's new book, The Avatar, visit .

More than that, the ex-Disney star is pointing to the Lord and His grace for the outcome of her lawsuit, writing she is "humbled and grateful to God for His love and grace in this outcome."

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

I have come to an agreement with Disney/Lucasfilm @disney @Lucasfilm which I believe is the best outcome for all parties involved. I hope this brings some healing to the force.

I want to extend my deepest most heartfelt gratitude to Elon Musk, @elonmusk a man I've never met,...

– Gina Carano □ (@ginacarano) August 7, 2025

“I am excited to flip the page and move onto the next chapter,” she added. “My desires remain in the arts, which is where I hope you will join me.”

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!

The 43-year-old celebrity, who played the character Cara Dune on the “Star Wars” spinoff series, used her social media platforms to express her conservative ideals, speaking out against COVID-related lockdowns, Black Lives Matter riots and transgender ideology.

To read the full story, visit our content partners at Faithwire.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright © 2025 The Christian Broadcasting Network Inc. All rights reserved.