

God Has Called You to Be Different

The church is like a prism that will take one bright light source and disperse it into a rainbow of different colors.

In the throne room of heaven, there is a rainbow over the throne of God because “God is light and in Him is no darkness at all” (1 John 1:5b, MEV). In that light, there is a divine light, a radiance casting forth different colors.

Breaking news, Spirit-filled stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

In other words, we have been baptized into one body by one Holy Spirit (see 1 Cor. 12:13), but every one of us reflects Him in a different way. It’s the same Spirit, the same Jesus, but through our beings, personalities and gifting, we display Him in different lights. In this way, we reflect Christ, coming together to create a portrait of Jesus Himself.

Pre-order Chris Garcia’s new book here!

You are not here to worship alone. You are here to join brothers and sisters in that same expression of Jesus, and we are all different in giftings, callings and anointings, but no one is lesser or greater than another. Together, we weave a beautiful tapestry, displaying Christ’s image on earth.

Thank you for visiting . To enjoy the rest of this CharismaNews post, please visit this link.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!