

God, I'm Ready to Walk in Faith

 Thelma Wells | Harvest House Publishers

Exploring Scripture with an eye to what it takes to trust in God with a modern-day faith, popular women's conference speaker Thelma Wells encourages readers to "Put on Your Shoes, Step Out, and Get Ready to Win!" in God, I'm Ready to Walk in Faith. Known as "Mama T," Wells shares her less-than-perfect past and demonstrates how she has learned to trust in the Lord.

Using a shoe metaphor, her story starts with baby shoes, which she uses to represent the faith formation of her early years. Tying her personal story to Scripture, she observes that Hannah trusted God enough to give up her mothering role so her son could honor God in temple service. But, during successful times, Wells wears her "Bling Bling" shoes. Similarly, Esther's life demonstrates how faith can bring victory in the bleakest of circumstances.

Whether in baby shoes or combat boots, Wells encourages readers to walk in faith, discerning God's will through personal Bible study and prayer. In God, I'm Ready to Walk in Faith, she offers a rich perspective on faith, including faith that overcomes fear, faith that discerns God's plan and faith that serves as a mighty example.
