

God Is Not Mad at You

So many people feel that God does not care about their everyday lives or that He's mad at them. Some are mad at God and blame God when things don't turn out as planned.

In today's Mornings With the Holy Spirit prayer call, we asked God to order our steps as we walk in faith, and we came against the lies of the enemy that comes to steal our faith, kill our dreams and destroy our perception of God as a loving father. Click the headline to access today's call.
