

God's Wrecking Balls Will 'Disintegrate Corruption and Restore the U.S.'

Last month, I posted a prophetic word from a Messianic friend whom I have known for many years. He has chosen to remain nameless, and let the word be tested. But a couple of weeks afterward, I went back to him to ask him his thoughts to gain a deeper understanding of what the wrecking balls actually meant.

He didn't respond for a couple of weeks, and then this is what I got from him, which he said I could publish. Please be prayerful about this, but perhaps this hatred and rioting is the second of the four wrecking balls, which I believe the first was the coronavirus.

Time will tell us, but for sure we must begin to prepare spiritually like never before. Here is what he said:

"Grant, as you asked, the following is in response to your question concerning the wrecking ball vision. I was not able to write it until I surrendered your question to The L-rd, which is what I've done. It took a number of days to fast and to pray and then to wait.

"The following is what I was given by The L-rd. He also said that my opinion is limited and holds nothing of value with this vision. I wrote the following just as He spoke it to me. Finally, the entire piece is to be used in its entirety. This includes the writing out of Scripture rather than citing the address of a verse—most will not go to the Word. The L-rd wants each verse written as that is the manner in which it has been directed by Him to me.

"The L-rd said to me in what sounded like a voice of displeasure, "You, son of man, are not capable to give an opinion of your own view to those who ask as to what the prophecy of the wrecking balls is about. Any attempt to do so on your own and not by My direction is both presumptive and potentially fallacious. The vision which I gave to you, son of man, concerns the current restoration of the United States and to those who have begun to corrupt your nation from many years ago up to the present time.

"Son of man, say to those who inquire of you and ask of you, 'What is the vision of the wrecking balls about?' that when you are asked you will say to them, 'Ask the L-rd first and wait as long as is necessary for an answer.' You are to tell them to pray and to seek Me for answers to their questions, and I will speak to them. The United States is to be restored, but this will not occur without the disintegration of the corruption which pervades your country; it is both important and significant for each individual's welfare that each one prepares for the action of the wrecking balls; and the way of preparation is to seek Me through prayer and My Word—for preparation will be different for each person. It is not going to be an easy time for the country. But those who seek Me, first for the welfare of others, then for their own welfare, I will tell them what they are to do."

"Son of man, they will not listen to you because you are flawed. And they will not listen to what you tell them. But tell them what I'm telling you here, anyway, so that their blood is not upon you. Speak and write as I speak these things to you, then turn yourself away from them and leave the consequences to Me. The prophetic vision of the wrecking balls is true. The first wrecking ball has come, but was not designed to create continuous hardship. What is meant, and the consequences which the remaining wrecking balls bear entails more than I can impart to you at this time, though I have restrained Myself and held back long enough.

"I'm instructing that you cite a sentiment from a Matthew Henry commentary that a governing body of any land is wholly responsible to the people of that land for the protection of their rights and for their obligation to that people to protect them from threats from within and from without. When an adversary of any kind approaches the land where people abide, it is even the obligation of those who write and those who govern to expose themselves to rise in righteous defense of the governed for fear of G-d and in the best interest of the governed. To do any less would negate the sanctity of rulership and potentially violate any oaths taken. Corruption in any form public, or private, is a violation of the right to write and the right to govern. Those who wear the mantle to govern and to lead are physically and spiritually culpable before a people and the G-d under whom they have been sworn. For those who hear, know and understand what is occurring in your country are responsible to support, stand, respond and to act in concert for the righteous good of the people, and I will reveal what they are to do. Should a leader be found who has, in confidence before G-d, rolled up his sleeves and begun to restore order in that land, then he is to be given the confidence of those governed. As it is has been written, 'It is G-d Who sits above the circle (the horizon) of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; it is He Who stretches out the heavens like [gauze] curtains and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in. Who brings dignitaries to nothing, Who makes the judges and rulers of the earth as chaos (emptiness, falsity, and futility)' (Isa. 40:22-23, AMPC). 'Then will you know (understand and realize) that I am the L-rd (the Sovereign Ruler, Who calls forth loyalty and obedient service)'" (Ezek. 25:7b).

"The United States has been in an upward swing since your current president took the oath for his office. His work has been tireless. Though there is mixed opinion about him, nevertheless, he is the one who has been fitted for the job, and the fruit of his working tirelessly for your country is apparent. It is written [concerning this leader], 'Fear not

[there is nothing to fear], for I am with you; do not look around you in terror nor be dismayed, for I am your G-d. I will strengthen and harden you to difficulties, yes, I will help you; yes, I will hold you up and retain you with My [victorious] right hand of rightness and justice' (see also Acts 18:10). 'Behold, all they who are enraged and inflamed against you shall be put to shame and confounded; they who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish. You shall seek those who contend with you but shall not find them; they who war against you shall be as nothing, as nothing at all. For I the L-rd your G-d hold your right hand; I am the L-rd, who says to you, 'Fear not; I will help you!' (Isa. 41:10-13).

"Son of man, it is also written, 'Who has roused up one (Cyrus) from the east, whom He calls in righteousness to His service and whom victory meets at every step? He (the L-rd) subdues nations before him and makes him ruler over kings. He turns them to dust with the sword (of Cyrus), and to driven straw and chaff with his bow' (see also Ezra 1:2). He (Cyrus) pursues them and passes safely and unhindered, even by a way his feet have not trod and so swiftly that his feet do not touch the ground' " (Isa. 41:2-3).

Author/speaker Grant Berry, founder of Reconnecting Ministries and Messiah's House Messianic Center, trumpets his new book, Romans 911—Time to Sound the Alarm! Grant is a Messianic believer in Yeshua, Jesus, and is promoting a new message into the body of Messiah, Christ, during these last days, known as "the reconnection." This is a new term used to describe the reuniting and full restoration of Jewish and Gentile believers into John 17 unity into the one new man now that Israel's awakening is upon us. This spiritual transaction has been unseen during most of the church age but is now most vital for the church to move into for God's end-time plans. It is a power key to the last great revival and final outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the earth. For more information and a
