

God Turns Our Lives Around: From Homosexuality to Preaching Jesus through the Power of the Spirit

Ciara declared, "Electricity went through my body. It went up my right side and then stopped. The Lord gave me a break and revealed I could not physically handle so much of His power and glory at once. Then the electricity traveled on my left side. The Lord took me back to conception and healed every wound in my life. What I thought was fifteen to twenty minutes was about fourteen hours of a divine encounter."

Why is this testimony so amazing? Ciara lived as a lesbian for over twenty years. She shared, "I lived a dangerous and reckless lifestyle and had a chip on my shoulder. I had to reject what was truth all of the time which led me to be an empty shell of a soul." In May 2012, she surrendered her life to Jesus and asked for redemption, not knowing if He would even hear her. In October of the same year, she began hearing the voice of God clearly for the first time in a very long time. That is when her new journey as His mouthpiece began.

Now Ciara proclaims the gospel, is married to a man and has a young child. How did a woman go from the desire to propose to her girlfriend in marriage to being a voice for the Lord? A praying mother and an elder who gave up his seat. Click here to listen to her testimony.

Never give up hope on a loved one. Continue to intercede! Your prayers are impacting destinies and can change the future of those for whom you are praying. {eo}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.