

Greg and Tai Locke Appointed as Apostles to the Nations

In a recent service held at Global Vision Bible Church in Mount Juliet, Tennessee, Pastor Greg Locke and his wife Tai were both prayed over and installed as apostles to the world.

The commission was led by Pastor Malachi O'Brien of The Church at Pleasant Ridge in Harrisonville, Missouri, and they were joined by Pastor Mike Signorelli of V1 Church in New York City through a video message.

"Now, just like Romans 1, where Paul says, 'I am a servant of Christ called to be an apostle,' I believe now, Greg Locke, a servant of Christ, called to be a global voice of the gospel to all people, called to be one that assigns tasks to others, that activates and imparts and releases the oil of the anointing to subdue and take territories and nations, and places that your feet have not yet traveled physically, but digitally," Signorelli said by video.

O'Brien took the mic when Signorelli's video ended and led the appointing procedure in front of the congregation.

"The Bible says in 1 Corinthians 12:28, 'the Lord has appointed to the church, first, apostles, second, prophets, third, teachers.' We are here today, Pastor Greg, Pastor Tai, today also to say, Apostle Greg, and Apostle Tai. To officially recognize what so many have recognized for many years," says O'Brien.

The Locke's were spoken over by several more leaders and friends within the body of Christ who then laid hands on them and prayed over their new season and appointment.

Afterward, O'Brien gifted Locke a framed copy of the Asbury Collegiate as a reminder that he is "an apostle of revival" to the nations of the earth.

"Personal revival; corporate revival; healing revival; deliverance revival; evangelism revival, you are now becoming the standard that others will follow," declared O'Brien.
