

Hard Times Determine Your Future

by Barbara Wentroble

Embracing your purpose in life is not limited to your comfort zone. The wilderness is a place where you may be uncomfortable physically, spiritually or psychologically. Yet, this may be the place where your future is determined. Your purpose is tested and strengthened during these times. The wilderness is a place where you have all your T's crossed and your I's dotted so that your great purpose can unfold.

Often we are convinced that we are forsaken and forgotten during this time. Sometimes we may only see a few steps ahead. By taking the few steps we can see, we discover the next steps that we do not see.

During this wilderness time, surround yourself with quality people who come to your cause and not just those who come to your success! Don't be concerned about looking successful nor seeing yourself as a failure during your wilderness journey. Allow others who have made it through their own wilderness to come alongside you. Watch your purpose unfold in ways you never would have known without your journey through the wilderness!
