

Have We Americanized the End-Time Prophecies?

Matthew 24 details the end of the age, something many in the American church have studied for decades, attempting to decipher what Jesus foretold.

But others have largely ignored the prophecies, pastor Jim Bakker says, refusing to prepare, despite what the Bible commands.

“Preachers are telling you nothing bad is coming and just give some money to our church and you’ll be blessed,” Bakker says.

This act is creating a paradigm shift that is harming more churches than helping.

Take a look.