

Hillary Clinton Says She'll 'Get to Bottom' of UFO Investigation

Apparently aliens could be added to issues like gun control, abortion, immigration and the economy if Hillary Clinton has her way.

At a meeting with a New Hampshire newspaper, Clinton reportedly told the board she would “get to the bottom” of a 2007 UFO encounter if she were elected.

Then the presidential hopeful was asked the tough question: Are aliens among us?

“I think we may have been [visited already],” Clinton reportedly said. “We don’t know for sure.”

According to The Hill, Clinton pledged inform the public the truth about alien life—and Area 51.

“One way or another. Maybe we could have, like, a task force to go to Area 51,” Clinton said.
