

Hillary Says This About Republican Response to Planned Parenthood

U.S. Democratic presidential candidate Hillary Clinton on Thursday called it “regrettable” that Republican lawmakers are attempting to cut federal funding from the health organization Planned Parenthood.

Republicans have threatened to defund the organization after videos surfaced that appeared to show Planned Parenthood officials seeking to sell aborted fetal tissue. Clinton said the effort was an attempt to limit health care options for women.

© 2015 Thompson Reuters. All rights reserved.