

Hollywood Celebs Unite to Combat Antisemitism in New Video: 'I'm a Proud Jew'

With disturbing, new waves of antisemitism continuing to rage around the globe, a group of celebrities have come together to sound the alarm and combat the issue.

The "New Year, New Voices" campaign emerged Feb. 21, with a new video that included several Jewish and non-Jewish voices, as Fox News reported.

The celebrities in the video make a variety of proclamations. Some say, "I'm a proud Jew" while others stand up against anti-Jewish sentiment and encourage people to rally around the Jewish people.

"I stand against antisemitism," Crawford proclaims at one point in the clip.
