

How a Supernatural Encounter Turned a God-Hater Into a Passionate Lover of Jesus

Michael Lombardo had a transformational encounter with the Lord 13 years ago that radically shifted the course of his life. He went from being a God-hater to a passionate lover of God's presence.

"Just one moment in His glory, and I fell head over heels in love," said Michael Lombardo.

From that point on, Michael began spreading the gospel everywhere he went, including overseas. The Lord ignited his heart with purpose by showing him a vision of multitudes and telling him, "First I'll have you speak to few, then I'll have you speak to many." This moment of encounter marked Michael's heart, and his greatest desire was to see the Lord's calling fleshed out in his life.

In Bible school, the Lord seized Michael's heart with a gripping question that shook him to the core of his being. "If you never write a book, if no one ever knows your name and if you never hold a microphone and speak to the multitudes ... am I enough for you?" Shocked by this question, Michael did some prayerful soul-searching, and he came to some powerful conclusions that will greatly enrich your walk with the Lord and challenge the church to a life of greater devotion and sacrificial living.

Find out more during this week's podcast.

Learn more by visiting or check out Michael's Facebook page. You can find his book, Immersed in His Glory, on Amazon.