

How an 89-Year-Old Pentecostal American Woman Is Changing India

In 1954, Huldah Buntain sailed with her husband to Calcutta, India, for a one-year term as missionaries. That stint has stretched into 60 years of serving the poor in one of the most populous cities through a massive network of ministries—still led by this remarkable 89-year-old woman. Watch the videos below to find out more about the multidimensional Pentecostal ministry of Calcutta Mercy Ministries.
