

How Authentic Revival Storms the Gates of Hell

Authentic revival will storm the gates of hell here on earth, End Time Headlines founder Ricky Scaparo says.

Satan often makes his kingdom in business dealings that revolve around money, sex and power. The sin keeps the cash flowing. But not when God shows up.

Take Acts 19 as an example:

After these things happened, Paul determined in his spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia and go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." He sent two who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, into Macedonia, but he delayed in Asia for a time.

About that time great trouble arose about the Way. For a silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines for Artemis, brought much business to the craftsmen. He gathered them together with the workmen of similar trades and said, "Men, you know that by this trade we have our wealth. And you see and hear, not only at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, that this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that these things made by hands are not gods. Now not only is our trade in danger of coming into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Artemis, whom all Asia and the world worship, may be discredited and her magnificence destroyed (Acts 19:21-23).
