

How Choosing Generosity Leads to Your Breakthrough

You may be facing financial hardship right now or may have lost your job due to the COVID-19 pandemic. But there is a paradigm shift coming your way that will make all the difference.

In this new episode of Truth Talks on the Charisma Podcast Network, Pastor Ché Ahn shares timely keys that will encourage you and help you to overcome during a season of crisis. Tune in as Pastor Ché shares powerful truths from Scripture on the indispensable value of remembering and thanking God for what He has done.

The biblical call to remember is so crucial to living the abundant life. Testimonies of God's faithfulness and provision not only tell of what God has done, but they also pave the way for what God will do in the future.

Pastor Ché teaches that the whole purpose of remembering is to help us stay grateful to God. One of the most common character traits of our fallen nature is ingratitude, when we don't acknowledge the good that others do for us or we quickly forget that good.

Yet gratitude is one of the most life-changing values that we can embrace. Gratitude is the secret to happiness and success. The people who have a positive attitude are the ones who get ahead in life, and gratitude helps us to be perpetually positive.

Even in the middle of COVID-19, we as followers of Jesus can experience supernatural abundance. How? God is calling us to shift our perspective and walk in faith by being generous. Through extraordinary generosity, you can break through the discouragement around you and step into a radically new season!
