

How COVID Mandate Is Making American Lives a Living Nightmare

Until they decide to give in to his administration's mandates, President Joe Biden is determined to make the lives of those who are still unvaccinated a living nightmare.

The president is cracking down on and taking aim at the 1 out of every 4 Americans who is eligible to be vaccinated and isn't. His new mandates will now require vaccination not only for federal employees and any contractors who do business with the federal government but also private companies and their employees.

In a six-point "plan," essentially summarized in a totalitarian, clearly illegal attempt to force Americans against their will to be directed to take the shot, Biden says it will ensure that the government is using every tool it can to combat COVID-19 and "save even more lives" in the months ahead while keeping schools open and safe, and protecting our economy from lockdowns and damage.

Clearly, however, this is an issue of control and not simply for people's protection of the virus.

The main point is an attempt to force any company with over 100 employees, all federal employees and military, through a convoluted Labor Department rule to force the shot as well as a litany of various coercive, illegal efforts.

Biden's clearly unhinged speech, so un-democratic, is believed not to be for the purpose of helping with a disease. There is no scientific basis for most of the efforts, from masks to shots. The shots themselves do not even carry guarantees.

According to commentator Steve Bannon, the host of a nearly 90-million audience member platform, “this is designed to target the deplorables—evangelical Christians and believers in a completely unscientific, totalitarian shakedown.”

As reported by Liberty Counsel: “The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has done a bait and switch and the media has—once again—failed to report the truth. As of Sept. 1, there was currently no fully licensed COVID shot available in the United States.”

Leaders remind believers of the words of Martin Neimoller who wrote as the Nazis began to grow in power, “First they came for the socialists and I did not speak out—because I was not a socialist. Then they came for the trade unionists—and I did not speak out because I was not a trade unionist. Then they came for the Jews—and I did not speak out because I was not a Jew. Then they came for me—and there was no one left to speak out for me.”

Stephen Strang, bestselling author of God and Cancel Culture, reminds believers of the Scripture in Matthew 10:16, “God’s people are called to be ‘wise as serpents and harmless as doves.’” “We must be like the gentle Jesus even as we fight battles for the soul of our nation,” he says

It is clear that such a totalitarian effort under the guise of a disease has no basis in law, in history or is even remotely constitutional. Believers are urged to consult with their personal lawyer or one of many Christian legal organizations, ranging from the Liberty Counsel, the Alliance Defending Freedom or the American Center for Law and Justice and arrange their own personal way to stand up to the tyranny that has come to America’s very core.

The gauntlet has been thrown down, and it is time, as Neimoller warned, to stand up to a completely unscientific, totalitarian attempt to strip believers of their freedom, their dignity and their very faith and “take the mark.” {eoa}
