

How God Can Redeem Your Timeline

Are you haunted by your past or anxious for your future? Did you know that as a Christian, you can invite Jesus into your personal timeline to supernaturally redeem your past and miraculously prepare your future?

Troy Brewer has been a pastor for nearly three decades. He's also rescued children from sexual trafficking, and he's an author.

Brewer loves time—how it works, that it has a beginning and an end and that time has a purpose. In his book “Redeeming Your Timeline,” he explains that God is not subject to time; it is part of His creation. God created the material universe, and on the fourth day when He created the sun, moon and stars, the book of Genesis tells us that He created them for signs, seasons, days and years (Gen. 1:14). God began the time process then.

God created time in such a way that time, space and matter are in perfect continuum, which means no one can separate them. If God were to create wood for a table, He has to create space to put it in, and then He has to create time because it takes time to get one side of the table to the other. It's all part of the same creative package.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

In the beginning (time), God created the heavens (space) and the earth (matter) (Gen. 1:1). In other words, God placed time, space and matter in the very first verse of the Bible. Brewer says, “God is not subject to time, and time is not a part of God's playground. Time is a playground that He made for us, therefore He can interact within it however He wants to.”

God took the apostle John and brought him 2,000 years into the future to show him the Antichrist, the Tribulation, the rapture of the church and the Second Coming. Then He took John another thousand years into the future and showed him the great white throne of judgment (Rev. 20:11), the new heaven and new earth (Rev. 21:1), and then dropped him back into his own time with instructions to write down what he had seen.

THANK YOU FOR VISITING . TO ENJOY THE REST OF THIS CHARISMANEWS POST, PLEASE VISIT THIS LINK.