

How God Can Supernaturally Confirm Your Choice of a Spouse

The topic of finding your spouse as a believer has many scratching their heads. Did God only create just one person for each and every one of us? Or do we have a choice in the matter, and God blesses our commitment to Him and our spouse in marriage? This is debated hotly in different streams in the church, but one thing we can all agree on because of its biblical truth is that we're all called to be equally yoked to other believers in the faith.

Michael and Selina Lombardo have a beautiful God story of how the Lord divinely led them to each other. They truly believe that if you seek God and pursue His heart for you that the Lord still speaks today and will lead you to the right spouse and partner with whom you can live and serve Jesus side by side. God honors our hunger and our desire for His participation and blessing in such a life-changing decision as choosing a spouse. He will even confirm His approval if you truly desire it and look for His hand of favor and blessing around every corner.

Tune into the latest episode of Awaken Podcast and listen to Michael and Selina share their story of how the Lord led them to each other.
