

How God Is Using Donald Trump for Good

“I see a plague coming on the world and the bars and church and government will shut down. The plague will hit New York City and shake it like it has never been shaken. The plague is going to force prayerless believers into radical prayer and into their Bibles and repentance will be the cry from the man of God in the pulpit. And out of it will come a third Great Awakening that will sweep America and the world.”

This 1986 prophecy by David Wilkerson describes perfectly what we now call the COVID-19 pandemic. How could he have known, and how could this spark a Third Great Awakening? Is it possible God is up to something? I believe Donald Trump has shown great leadership in this crisis—what does this mean for the 2020 election?

A little history. I’ve written several books about Donald Trump because I believe we are at a critical juncture in the life of our country, and I believe God has raised up this incredible leader for such a time as this. My book, God, Trump and the 2020 Election, explores what is at stake if he loses in November. It is the most important book I’ve ever written. If you haven’t read it, I hope you will. Not because it’s my book but because I believe it will help you understand what the liberal fake news (and even the more conservative secular news media) won’t tell you: where is God in all this and what is His will?

Then, in January, 2020 the first case of COVID-19 was discovered in the United States. In a matter of weeks everything changed. In early April, I felt I should write a new book about how this unexpected pandemic could affect the outcome of this election. It’s much shorter than my other books. It’s timely and topical and in some ways is the sequel to God, Trump and the 2020 Election.

I'm offering special discounts for a limited time on several books. For example, you can still order the eBook, God, Trump and COVID-19 for only $. CLICK HERE to see everything I'm offering.

Thank you for being part of the Charisma family. God's word says we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers. We also know that greater is He who is in us, than he who is in the world. (See 1 John 4:4.) God has a plan for America. Stand with me in expectation of a Great Awakening, which is what our country (and the world) so desperately needs.
