

How Making Lemonade Builds Leadership

In a season like this one, innovation is needed to respond to new realities and to prepare for what is coming. Major shifts are happening all around the world right now, in Big Tech and online.

How do we prepare ourselves and respond? What do we do to get ready?

This pandemic has revealed our willingness to change. It's provoked a need to innovate and pivot in new directions and into new endeavors. How we respond to this season will determine what we get out of it.

As leaders, we want the lemonade when life gives us the lemon, but is this season all that bad? Or is this the opportunity we have been waiting for? Supernatural leaders choose to innovate when they see great opportunity, and this is one of those seasons.

There are three very important responses for innovation that every leader needs in their leadership arsenal, and in Episode 19 of the Supernatural Leadership Podcast on the Charisma Podcast Network Shawn Gabie shares them in ways that can be applied to any area or arena of leadership. This is a word for the times we live in. Listen today. {eoa}
