

How Spirit-Filled Christians Can Defeat the Satanic Attack on Their Faith, Families and Freedoms

Attorney, author and international evangelist Dr. Curt Davis says there is an intense satanic attack on believers' families, faith and freedoms—and there's only one way to overcome it.

If people want genuine renewal and victory in their lives, he says, they must go through genuine repentance.

“Repentance means a change,” Davis says, quoting Billy Graham on his “The Solid Rock” podcast on the Charisma Podcast Network. “It is not a resolution to do better nor a promise to oneself not to do it again. It is a total change in a person's thought life and the way he lives and looks at things, a change so thorough, so deep, so complete that only God can bring it about. It's a supernatural event.”

Listen to the podcast to learn how America can draw near to Jesus through repentance.